

FOREWORD

The study on "Judicial Review Through Writ Petitions" was undertaken on the suggestion of the All-India Seminar on Administrative Law convened by the Institute in December, 1957.

The initial draft was prepared by Prof. Alan Gledhill of the University of London who was at the time a visiting Professor with the Institute and Shri V. G. Ramachandran, a Project Director of the Institute. After Prof. Gledhill left, further work was carried on by Shri V. G. Ramachandran under the general supervision of Dr. A. T. Markose, the Research Director of the Institute. The responsibility for what is stated and expressed herein is that of the above named research staff of the Institute.
