The Indian Law Institute, New Delhi, established the State Unit at Allahabad in 1985 of which the Chief Justice of the State is President. The research project allotted to the State Unit is 'Law relating to University Education'.

In pursuance of the above research project, it was required to examine the U. P. State Universities Act, which is analogous to other University Acts in the country. In the circumstances, the Act, as amended upto date alongwith its amendments, has been prepared under the auspices of the State Unit of the Institute. This work is the outcome of the efforts made by Dr. R. G. Padia, Secretary of the State Unit. The State Unit has incorporated this study in the form of this Book.
