

CONTENTS

FOREWORD	v
PREFACE	vi
TABLE OF CASES	xii
TABLE OF STATUTES	xviii

CHAPTERS

I.	Forms and Classification	1
I.	Designations of Delegated Legislation	1
II.	Delegated Legislation for Diverse Purposes	3
(1)	Commencement of Acts	4
(2)	Extension and Application of Acts	6
(i)	Territorial Extension of Acts	6
(ii)	Temporary Extension of Acts	9
(iii)	Extension of Acts to Objects not originally covered	9
(3)	Dispensing and Suspending of Acts	10
(4)	Delegation of Power to alter an Act	12
(5)	Delegation of Legislative Powers to impose taxes	17
(6)	Delegation of Power of Supplementary Legislation	20
(7)	Delegation of Power to prescribe punishments	24
III.	Rule-Making Authorities	25
(1)	Rule-Making by the Central Government	26
(2)	Rule-Making by State Governments	27
(3)	Rule-Making by Central Subordinate Authorities	28
(4)	Rule-Making by Semi-Governmental Statutory Bodies	28
(5)	Rule-Making by Local Authorities and the High Courts	29

IV. Classification: Subordinate and Conditional or Con- tingent Legislation	29
V. Sub-Delegation	31
II. Procedural Safeguards	33
I. Antecedent Publicity	34
(i) Publication of Draft Rules	36
(ii) Invitation of Objections	37
II. Prior Consultation with Affected Interests	39
(i) Official Consultations	42
(ii) Consultation with Statutory Boards	43
(iii) Consultation with Advisory Bodies	43
(iv) Making of Draft Rules by Affected Interests	45
(v) Suggestions for Improvement	46
III. Post-Natal Publicity of Delegated Legislation	49
Suggestions	54
IV. Intelligibility of Statutory Instruments	57
III. Constitutionality of Legislative Delegation	59
Australia	60
Canada	62
South Africa	69
U.S.A.	72
India	79
1. Pre-Constitution Period	79
2. Post-Constitution Period	82
(i) In re Delhi Laws Act case	82
(ii) Subsequent Decisions Clarifying the Delhi Laws Act case	89
(a) Power to amend or repeal an Act	90
(b) Power to modify an Act	93
(c) Power to extend Life of an Act	94
(iii) Adequacy of Legislative 'Policy' or 'Standards'	96

IV.	Judicial Review of Delegated Legislation	110
A.	Substantive Ultra Vires	110
	(1) Delegated Legislation not Authorised by the enabling Act	111
	(2) Delegated Legislation Violating Fundamental Law	121
	(3) Unreasonableness	126
	(4) Bad Faith	131
	(5) Sub-Delegation	134
B.	Procedural Ultra Vires	143
	(1) Effect of failure to consult	144
	(2) Effect of failure to publish	147
	(3) Effect of failure to lay	153
	Concluding Remarks	160
V.	Parliamentary Control	162
I.	General Control	162
II.	Laying on the Table of the House	165
	United Kingdom	165
	(i) Laying without Further provision for control	166
	(ii) Laying with deferred operation	167
	(iii) Laying with immediate effect, but subject to annulment	167
	(iv) Laying in draft but subject to resolution that no further proceedings be taken	168
	(v) Laying in draft and requiring affirmative resolution	168
	(vi) Laying with operation deferred until approval given by affirmative resolution	169
	(vii) Laying with immediate effect but requiring affirmative resolution as a condition for continuance	169
	Australia	173
	Canada	175
	South Africa	177
	U.S.A.	179
	India	182
	Types of 'Laying'	184

Procedure in Parliament	191
Assessment of Laying Procedure in India	193
Modification of Statutory Instruments by Legislature....				198
VI. Parliamentary Control—Scrutiny Committees	201
(1) United Kingdom	201
(i) Special Orders Committee	201
(ii) The Select Committee on Statutory Instruments	202
(2) Australia	214
Other Countries	219
(3) India: Lok Sabha Committee on Subordinate Legislation	221
Constitution of the Committee	221
Functions of the Committee	223
Procedure	226
Assessment of the Working of the Committee on Sub- ordinate Legislation	229
Recommendations Concerning Subordinate Legislation in General	230
(a) Bills	230
(b) Laying of Orders on the Table of the House	234
(c) Lapses in Framing of Orders	235
(d) Uniformity	235
(e) Short Titles to Orders	235
(f) Reference to Earlier Amendments	236
(g) Explanatory Notes	236
(h) Central Number and Publication	236
(i) Publicity	237
(j) Language of Delegated Legislation	237
(k) Wide Delegations	238
(l) Matters to be dealt with by Acts	238
(m) Sub-delegation	238
Recommendations on Specific Orders	240
(a) Ultra Vires Exercise of Power	241

(b) Matters to be dealt within the Act	241
(c) Imposition of Taxes and Penalties	242
(d) Exclusion of Jurisdiction of Courts	243
(e) Retrospective Operation	244
(f) Unexpected or Unusual Use of Power	244
(g) Elucidation	245
(h) Miscellaneous	246
VII. Concluding Remarks	250