

Contents

Foreword	i
Preface	iii
Table of Cases	ix
1. Introduction	1
2. The Position of the Press	8
3. The Legal Framework	10
4. The Concept of Defamation : Libel and Slander	12
5. Defamation and Privacy	18
6. Publication and Re-publication	24
7. Liability for Defamation : Joint Responsibility and Multiple Publication	27
8. Unintentional Defamation	34
9. Defences : Justification and Fair Comment	36
10. Absolute Privilege	48
11. Qualified Privilege	57
12. Honest Belief in Truth as a Defence	61
13. Remedies in Civil Proceedings	64
14. Jurisdiction, Procedure, Limitation, Pleadings and Evidence	67
15. Survival of Causes of Action for Defamation	72
16. Criminal Law : Section 499, Indian Penal Code	74
17. Punishment	98
18. Some Developments in Australia and the United Kingdom	99
19. Newspapers and the Criminal Law of Defamation	102
20. Newspapers and the Civil Law of Defamation	111
Appendices
I. Indian Case Law on Slander	117
II. Section 468, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973	122
III. Section 499-502. I P.C.	123
IV. Recommendations of the Press Council on Law of Defamation	127
Subject Index	139

