6 CONSUMER PROTECTION LAW

131

I	INTRODUCTION
II	JURISDICTION, POWER AND FUNCTIONS OF CONSUMER COMMISSIONS
	Consumer complaints filed before the coming into effect of the Consumer Protection Act, 2019 (CPA 2019) should continue in the fora in which they were filed as per the pecuniary jurisdiction under the previous Consumer Protection Act of 1986 (CPA 1986).

Demanding disproportionate compensation to inflate the value of the complaint to reach the pecuniary jurisdiction of the NCDRC is an abuse of the process of law

For an application for condonation of delay to be considered, the party must show sufficient cause for not approaching the court within limitation

Appointment of president, members/staff and inadequate infrastructure of district and state commissions

NCDRC must pass reasoned judgment along with operative order

Applications to condone delay in filing version in consumer cases pending on March 4, 2020 not Impacted by Constitutional Bench judgment

Consumer fora has no power to accept written statement beyond period of 45 days

Consumers with same interest need not file a complaint in representative capacity but they can file joint consumer complaint before the commission

NCDRC can direct deposit of entire or more than 50% of amount ordered by SCDRC for stay

III AGRICULTURAL SECTOR

Business entities shall properly provide the information to the farmer and shall follow up after sale, to ensure that the farmer has understood all the instructions

IV ARBITRATION SECTOR

The arbitral award may be appealed under section 34 of the Arbitration and conciliation Act.

V AUTOMOBILE SECTOR

Selling a second-hand car, in place of a new car, after accepting the full consideration price for a new car, inter alia constitutes 'unfair trade practice' under Section 2(1)(r) of the Consumer Protection Act.

Sale of defective car due to dealer's fault will not make car manufacturer liable unless knowledge can be proved.

VI BANKING SECTOR

RBI Guidelines on recovery by private banks are applicable to loan/hypothecation agreements and before taking possession of hypothecated property, proper notice is essential, otherwise it would be deficiency of service.

Banks cannot impose unilateral and unfair terms on the consumers while operating bank lockers.

Bank is liable for fraudulent online transaction if account holder's fault not proved

- If a fund transfer is affected through net banking and due procedure is followed by the Bank for the transfer, Bank cannot be sued for deficiency of service.
- VII E-COMMERCE
Cancellation of the confirmed order by the e-commerce company amounts to Unfair trade practice.
- VIII FALSE ENDORSEMENT/MISLEADING ADVERTISEMENT
Brand ambassador or endorser can be held liable for false claims through advertisements
Advertisement / sale of articles claiming they have miraculous or supernatural properties is illegal
- IX INSURANCE SECTOR
Insurance claim cannot be repudiated arbitrarily
Where insured had taken the add on covers of new vehicle replacement; he is entitled for payment of amount to be determined under the clauses of new vehicle replacement contained in the insurance policy.
- X MEDICAL NEGLIGENCE
Mere repeal of the 1986 Act by the 2019 Act, without anything more, would not result in exclusion of ‘health care’ services rendered by doctors
Negligence in carrying the patient on wheel chair amounts to deficiency in service.
In medical negligence cases, it is important to examine whether the error of judgment/failure was such that it was negligence. Negligence cannot be attributed to a doctor so long as he is performing his duties to the best of his ability and with due care and caution.
- XI REAL ESTATE
Not completing construction on time/delay in grant of possession and deducting money while refunding the money is deficiency in service.
Decisions cannot automatically apply in rem and ordinarily, impleadment is necessary for an order to be applicable on any party.
