

FOREWORD

The Indian Law Institute takes pleasure in bringing out this study on "Administrative Process under the Essential Commodities Act." It adds one more link in the chain of studies which the Institute proposes to bring out in the area of Indian Administrative Law. This study has been prepared by Dr. M. P. Jain. He prepared the first draft during his stay as Project Director in the Institute from April 1959 to July 1960. Thereafter, he has revised it and brought it up-to-date.

The responsibility for the views expressed in the study is that of the author.

B. P. SINHA
Executive Chairman

