

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The International Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution (ICADR) and the World Bank have rightly chosen the Indian Law Institute to undertake this study, which is of current importance to our polity. We in the ILI felt extremely happy to do this with dedication not only because of our strong commitment to legal research but also we wanted to prove that we are worthy of the confidence reposed on us by the ICADR and the World Bank. It gives us immense pleasure that we could finish the study in time.

We take this opportunity to express our deep sense of gratitude to the following persons for their guidance and support.
