

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The author gratefully acknowledges the support of the Indian Law Institute, New Delhi for conducting this study, particularly Prof. Upendra Baxi for his inspiration, Dr. Alice Jacob for the continued guidance and support she extended, and Dr. Chhatrapati Singh, for initiating me into it.

This study was made possible by the active, willing and interested cooperation of the officials of the Tamilnadu and Karnataka Governments at State, District, Taluk and Village level.

As always, farmers and village leaders in the Panchayats selected for study responded with eagerness and seriousness to the issues raised, with a justified expectation that their realities would be acknowledged fairly. I wish to thank them.

I wish to express my gratitude to my friends Amita, Murali, Pushpavanam, Usha and Srilatha for their interest and encouragement. Especially, Stanley and Helen Mukkath for the generosity with which they made themselves an intrinsic part of the effort.

