

TABLE OF CONTENTS

FOREWORD	v
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT	vii
INTRODUCTION	3-11
Irrigation vis-a-vis the Environment
I. TRADITIONAL IRRIGATION SYSTEMS IN TAMILNADU AND KARNATAKA	13-24
Village Government in Medieval South India
Irrigation Management by Village Assemblies
Ownership of Water Resources
Construction, Repair and Maintenance of Tanks
Powers of Village Assemblies regarding Land
Transactions relating to Irrigation
Management of Water Supply
Levy and Collection of Cess by Village Assemblies
Dispute Settlement
Relationship of Local Bodies with the Central Government
II. LAND AND WATER POLICY UNDER BRITISH COLONIAL ADMINISTRATION : MADRAS PRESIDENCY	25-83
Land Revenue Administration in the Madras Presidency
Early Experiments
Zamindari settlements
Village Leases
Raiyatwari system
Impact of Land Revenue System on Agriculture
Irrigation policy in the Madras Presidency
Modes of Irrigation
Foundation of Irrigation Policy -
Era of the East India Company 1750-1858
First phase
Second phase
Application of Western Engineering Sciences
The Public Works management system
Impact of Ryotwari Revenue Settlement
Introduction of Large-Scale Irrigation works
Developments in Irrigation Policy in the post-1858 Period
Classification of Public Works
Private Enterprise in Irrigation
Government Monopoly over Irrigation
Irrigation Law and Administration
Regulations under the East India Company
Irrigation Law and Administration - 1857-1920

Kudimaramath and the Law
 Administration of Irrigation Works
*Village Panchayats in Irrigation Management -
 Law and Policy (1920 - 1947)*
 Development of Local Self-Government - Early Phase
 Madras Village Panchayat Act of 1920
 The Act of 1930
 Policy on Common Properties
 Cattle pounds
 Communal Porombokes
 Forest
 Alternatives to Village Participation

III. LAW AND POLICY ON IRRIGATION IN MYSORE STATE
 UNDER BRITISH ADMINISTRATION 85-109

British Administration in Mysore
 Irrigation policy in Mysore
 Developments in Tank Management from 1800 A.D.
 The Public Works/Irrigation Department
 The Revenue Department Self-Defence
 Developments in Irrigation Administration-Post-1863
 Executive Orders/Legislation/Schemes in Mysore State
 relating to Irrigation and the role of village Bodies
 The Rules of 1863
 The Rules of 1873
 The Rules of 1904
 The Minor Tank Restoration Scheme - 1884-86
 The Tank Panchayat Act of 1911
 Panchayat Legislation
 Irrigation Legislation

IV. POST-CONSTITUTIONAL DEVELOPMENTS IN
 PANCHAYATS AND IRRIGATION 111-126

Constitutional Position
 The Government of India Act, 1935
 Local Government
 Irrigation Policy - Recommendations of Various Committees on Panchayat's Role
 The Baiwantrai Mehta Committee - 1957
 Minor Irrigation Committee, 1957
 Planning Commission Study on Minor Irrigation - 1961
 Irrigation Commission, -1972
 Ashoka Mehta Committee Report on Panchayat Raj
 Institutions - 1978
 Current Status of Irrigation in Panchayat Legislations of Tamilnadu and Karnataka

	Tamilnadu
	Karnataka
V.	CASE STUDY IN IRRIGATION MANAGEMENT BY PANCHAYAT INSTITUTIONS IN TAMILNADU AND KARNATAKA	127
	Tamilnadu
	Karnataka
VI.	CONCLUSIONS	163
VII.	ANNEXURES	175
	ANNEXURE I - Progress of India's Irrigation 1951 to 1985
	ANNEXURE II - Irrigation Functions of Ancient Village Assemblies in Tamilnadu and Karnataka
	ANNEXURE III - Area Irrigated from Minor Sources since 1920-21
	GLOSSARY OF TERMS	193
	INDEX

