

SUBJECT INDEX

COMMUNAL WRITINGS

- bounds of propriety, transgressing the, 24
- Christian missionaries, remarks about, 14
- code of journalistic ethics, contravention of, 30
- communal bias,
 - persistently publishing reports and articles having, 13
- communal colour, news tended to give, 1
- communal discord,
 - news having the tendency to generate feelings of, 1
 - picture tending to promote, 5
- communal disharmony,
 - articles apt to create, 30, 31
 - exaggeration apt to create, 29
 - picture tending to promote, 4
- communal disturbances, report on, presenting distorted picture, 22
- communal events, news on, 40
- communal feelings,
 - articles and question-answer features arousing, 10, 11
- communal harmony,
 - article calculated to undermine, 20
 - passages having tendency to disrupt, 27
 - provocative articles tending to disturb, 27
- communal hatred,
 - article calculated to incite, 36
- communal ill feelings,
 - exaggeration of the grievances of Muslims, likely to inflame, 31
 - one-sided report on communal riots, aimed at inflaming, 28
 - statements fostering, 26
- communal in colour,
 - article having, 19
- communal matter,
 - cartoons relating to, 38
- communal organisation,
 - comment upon, 11
 - demand for action against, 39
- communal passions,
 - article tending to inflame, 35
- objectionable, mischievous article calculated to inflame, 35
- whipping up, 8, 33
- communal propaganda,
 - persistently indulging in, 14
- communal riot,
 - article distorting events during, 20
 - one sided report on, 28
- communal situation,
 - comment on handling the, by the ruling party, 15
- communal tension,
 - article intemperate in language calculated to heighten, 37
- communities,
 - article calculated to impair good relations between, 33
 - article tending to create animosity between, 31
 - casting aspersion on, 21, 36
 - comment upon the condition of, 40
 - defaming particular, 39
 - describing whole community of a particular area as not human being, 19
 - depicting a particular community as utterly barbarous, 33
 - gross slander on, 28
 - intemperate writing undermining harmony between, 23
 - news likely to incite feeling of enmity, hatred and ill-will among, 2
 - observation against Parsi community, 20
 - tirade against minority, 8
- Constitution,
 - allegations that Constitution was passed to protect the interest of capitalists, 13
- death tolls,
 - gross exaggeration of, 11
- distortion of facts, 23
- editorial,
 - asking to burn the Constitution, 13
 - tenor and contents of, calculated to stir up hatred, 16
- exaggeration,
 - in depicting events, 26, 32
 - of facts, 23
 - of the grievances of various communities, 12
- good taste,
 - outstepping the limits of, 12

- government, allegation about riots being engineered by, 5 article aiming to malign, creating feeling of disaffection, 3 article calculated to affect Indo-Pak relations, 20 comment on the economic policy of, towards Muslims, 18, 39
- hatred,
 passages having a tendency to create, 15
- headline,
 effect of misleading, 25
- Hindus,
 accusing, for committing atrocities on Muslims, 6 anti-Hindu remarks to create hatred against, 28 attack on community of, 27 characterising, as "shameless", 31 comment on the curtailment of the right of, to play music while passing a mosque, 15 describing Prophet Mohammad as religious leader of, 16 exacerbating the feeling of, 28 portrayal of, as cowards turned oppressors, 12 religious susceptibilities of, article on, 29 sarcastically and adversely reflecting on the religious beliefs of, 5 offending the sentiments of, 9
- historical facts, publications of, to warn the present generation against repetition of past mistakes, 32 publishing the, 40
- honest differences of opinion, expression of, 39
- intemperate language, use of, 23
- intemperate writings, 24
- Jan Sangh,
 describing certain members as fascist, 25
- journalist's right,
 to criticise and comment on govt. policies, 38
- journalistic ethics, transgressing the, 21, 24
- journalistic impropriety,
 complaints regarding, 38
- journalistic propriety,
 outstepping the limits of, 5, 24, 28
- lampooning and vulgarity, satire degenerating, 17
- linguistic and regional passions, writing inflaming, 19
- minister,
 false news about involvement of, 10
- Muslims,
 allegation against, in govt. service, 9 article describing role of knife in Islam, 21 attack on personal life of Prophet Mohammad, 8 branding, in general as rioters, 15 comment upon the conditions of, and political attitude of other community to them, 28 criticism of govt. policies towards, 17 imparting a communal and anti-Muslim colour to an incident, 34 inciting, to rise against the law of the land, 8 likely to hurt feelings of, 17 maligning community of, and running down national leadership, 7 slur on, 21
 story intended to whip up anti-Muslim feelings, 23 suggesting, being given favoured treatment, 17
- National Integration Conference, attack on, 7
- National Integration Council, criticism on the guidelines of, 15
- national leaders,
 article having a tendency to degrade, 16 calling Chavan "a rabid Muslim", 18 reference of pro-Muslim attitude of Nehru, 7
- news media,
 discontinuance of, 40
- objectionable matter, publication of, to create disharmony between the communities, 25
- objectionable writings, 6
- picture,
 publication of, of Prophet, Mohammad, 16
- political climate,
 assessment of, 34
- press,
 legitimate functions of, 38

- reasonable comment,
by journalist on a public individual's attitude, 39
- responsibility of editor, for publications in the newspapers, 39 for publication of interview, 27
- satire,
satirical piece depicting the 19th century European views having notions of superiority of western customs, 29
- social issues,
expressing the opinion on, 32
- unbridled and intemperate style, article written in, 26
- violent retaliation,
poems advocating for, 14
- DEFAMATION AND SCURRILOUS WRITINGS
- abusive language, in editorial comments, 93
using, 90
- affairs of university,
publication of resolutions of Association of University Teachers, 83
- aspersion,
defamatory article attempting to cast, on an eminent person, 81 news-items attempting to cast, on a company management and tarnishing its image, 81 on district administration, 82 news-item tending to cast, on the functioning of state govt., 81
- baseless allegations, against secretariat officials, 91
- blackmail,
article in the nature of, intended to threaten the complainant into submission to dictates, 87 publication of defamatory news in order to, 85 publication of false news with a view to, 85-86 publication of paper only with the object of making money by blackmailing local officials, 88
- character assassination, by newspaper, 82
indulgence in, 91
- compromise, effected between parties for indulging in libellous personal attack, effect of, 96
- crude language, 84, 88
- defamation, deliberate intention of editor to defame complainant in scandalous manner, 93 publication of news defaming a lady principal without making attempt to verify facts, 94
- defamatory article, publication of, 83
- defamatory matter, publication of, 90
- defamatory writings, 89
- editorial comments, abusive language in, 93
- false allegation, deliberate, by the editor, 96
- false matter, publication of, 90
- false news-items,
publication of, without verification to defame, 95
- falsity of facts, proof of publication of, 92
- indecent and obnoxious writings, constant publication of, 95
publication of, 83
- intemperate and unbridled language, employment of, 91
- journalistic impropriety,
of the publication of a libel, on a public figure, principle of, 92
- journalistic propriety,
factors relevant as to the publication of libel on a public figure, 95
- libellous personal attacks, indulgence in, 84, 85
- objectionable language, 88, 89
- objectionable news-items, publication of, 82
- police, condemnation of, 90
- political leader,
political conduct of, 89
public conduct of, 95
- President of India, slanderous remarks about, 90
- regret,
for publishing baseless, scurrilous and mischievous news, 92-93
- rumour, publication of, 86, 96
- state govt. tarnishing the fair name of, 86
- vulgar language, 84, 90
- JOURNALISTIC IMPROPRIETY (MISCELLANEOUS)
- accuracy, maintenance of, 123

- editor,
 - discretion of, to close a continuing discussion, 67
 - power of, to edit the article, 70
 - request of, to write article, 70
 - responsibility of, for complaint against reporter, 68
- editorial comment,
 - legitimate extent of, 53
- falsity of report,
 - onus to prove, 65
- gross impropriety,
 - in publishing article, unjustifiably maligning the complainant, 65
- individual's image,
 - attempt to tarnish, 41, 44
- justification,
 - for promptly presenting news of public interest, 68
 - for publishing news-items coming from regular correspondent, 68
- letter to editor,
 - containing reasonable criticism to published article, 42
 - discretion of editor regarding, 50, 61
 - non-publication of, 58
 - points already dealt within another, 62
 - principle governing publication of, 69-70
 - omitting portion of, 49
- libellous article,
 - publication of, 43
- news reports,
 - sufficient basis for publishing, 63
 - utmost care in filing, 55, 68
- Press Council,
 - direction of, to publish its decision, 53
 - settlement and compromises effected by, 47
- variance between the text of publication and full text of the decision of, 53
- rebuttal,
 - locus standi* to send a, 49, 68
- rectification,
 - for publishing inaccurate report, 68
- regret, 42
- rejoinder,
 - containing libellous statement, 45
 - contents of, 69
 - discretion of editor to publish, 45
 - for factually incorrect news-item, 69
 - in the nature of personal attack, 51
 - omitting certain portion of, 56
 - power of Press Council to direct newspaper to publish, 70
 - publication of, as letter to editor, 48
 - standing to issue, regarding factually wrong statement about public figure, 69
 - terms for publishing, 45
 - to a book review, 57-58
- reports,
 - principles for publication of, 53
- reprehensible conduct,
 - in publishing news-items, 61
- right of reply, 51
- suspension of journalist,
 - for false report, 52
- verification,
 - necessity of, where serious reflections are cast, 67
 - duty of, before publishing scandalous story, 64
- vulgar sentiments,
 - publication of, 60