

PREFACE

The Index is intended to facilitate reference to periodicals (including annual publications), pertaining to law and related fields, published in India. Attempt has been made to cover articles, case comments, notes and other materials of academic value.

Ordinarily the material is indexed under a specific subject heading. But in certain cases it has been considered convenient to put it under more than one heading. Cross references have been provided in order to make the index comprehensive. A separate list of cases commented upon is also given, for easy location of such cases.

The Index has been prepared by Shri H.C. Jain, Librarian of the Institute, with the co-operation of the library staff.

P.M. Bakshi
Director