

PREFACE

The Index to Indian Legal Periodicals, started in 1963, had been a regular half yearly publication of the Indian Law Institute. Since 1990, however, it could not be published, except for the year 1992. Looking at its utility and on popular demand, it has been decided to restart its publication on a regular basis. The present volume contains the indexes of 1990 and 1991.

The Index to Indian Legal Periodicals indexes periodicals (including Year Books and other annual publications) pertaining to law and related fields published in India. Articles, case comments, notes and other materials are included irrespective of the length of the material.

As far as possible, material is indexed under a specific subject heading. If it is not possible to classify it under a specific heading, it may be indexed under more than one heading. 'See' and 'see also' references are provided wherever necessary to facilitate the location of the material. A separate list of cases commented upon is also given for easy location of such cases.

The Index is prepared by Shri Parmodh Singh, Chief Librarian of the Institute with the cooperation of the library staff. Mrs. Jyoti D. Sood, Assistant Research Professor helped in editing and proof-reading the manuscript.
