

Contents

Foreword	vii
Preface	viii
Table of cases	ix
Chapter 1	1
Some Introductory Themes
(i) Introduction
(ii) Centrifugal tendencies in Indian History
(iii) The centralising nature of the Indian Constitution
(iv) A conflict between the constitutional ideals and political realities.
Chapter 2	14
The British Origins of President's Rule
Chapter 3	34
The Discussions of the Founding Fathers
Chapter 4	69
Failure of Constitutional Machinery in the States—A Historical Survey
(i) The Nehru era
(ii) Lal Bahadur Shastri & Kerala
(iii) The Indira Gandhi years
(iv) Morarji Desai, Charan Singh and Janata rule
Chapter 5	103
Failure of Constitutional Machinery in the States—An Analysis
(i) Introduction
(ii) Common sense, parliamentary democracy and federalism

(iii) The political interpretation of article 356.
(a) The narrow interpretation
(b) The wider interpretation
(iv) A summary
Chapter 6	126
President's Rule and the Courts
Chapter 7	159
President's Rule and Parliament
Chapter 8	176
Conclusion
Appendices
(i) President's Rule—The Constitutional Provisions	185
(ii) Duration of President's Rule	188
(iii) Report of the Committee of Governors	191
Index	239