

CONTENTS

Foreword
Contributors
Introduction	Rajeev Dhavan	i - xcii
Dare Not Be Little : Jawahar Lal Nehru's Constitutional Vision and its Relevance in the Eighties and Beyond	Upendra Baxi	1-10
Nehru's World View	Naorem Sanajaoba	11-21
Nehru and Objectives Resolution : A Historical Perspective	J.K. Mittal	22-44
If I Contradict Myself, Well Then I Contradict Myself...Nehru, Law and Social Change	Rajeev Dhavan	45-62
Nehru and the Judiciary	Alice Jacob	63-76
Nehru and Agrarian Reforms	Mohammad Ghouse	77-109
Nehru on Equality and Compensatory Discrimination	Parmanand Singh	110-120
Nehru and Gender Justice	Lotika Sarkar	121-133
Jawaharlal Nehru and the Language Problem	S.K. Agrawala	134-160
Nehru and Secularism	R.K. Misra	161-181
Nehru's Secularism	Shariful Hasan	182-195
Nehru and Federalism : Vision and Prospects	S.P. Sathe	196-213
Nehru's Approaches to International Law, Peace and Development	T.S. Rama Rao	214-225
The Recovery of Fire : Nehru and Legitimation of Power in India	Upendra Baxi	226-241

