The Institute is grateful to the Law Research Institute, Eastern Region, Gauhati High Court, for the preparation of this study. The authors of this painstaking study were patient beyond measure as the publication of this monograph took more than usual time for processing.

Professor Roy Burman was generous with his time and sage counsel on the manuscript. He made a number of valuable suggestions which the authors found useful.

Associate Professor Kusum, willingly shouldered editorial responsibilities for the final text of this work and she ensured fairly expeditious publication. Professor P.M. Bakshi was kind enough to assist us in the editing of the earlier version of the text.
