

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

IN RE: UNION CARBIDE
CORPORATION GAS LEAK
DISASTER AT BHOPAL, INDIA
IN DECEMBER 1984

MDL Docket No. 626
Misc. No. 21-38 (JFK)
All Cases
ORDER

JOHN F. KEENAN, United States District Judge:

The Court makes the following determinations with respect to its Opinion and Order of May 12, 1986.

1. No stay of the Opinion and Order is granted at this time. No applicable statute of limitations shall begin to run until 12 months after the date of the entry of the order of this Court dismissing the consolidated case or in the event a stay is granted by this or any other tribunal, until 12 months after the stay is lifted, whichever is later.
2. No alterations or amendments to any of the three conditions at pages 62-63 of the Opinion and Order are being made by the Court except for clarification of the second condition as set forth in paragraph 1 above.
3. Union Carbide shall indicate its acceptance or rejection of the three conditions contained in the Opinion and Order by or before 5:00 P.M. June 12, 1986. A writing signifying Union Carbide's position is required.
4. Individual plaintiffs' counsels' motion for a fairness hearing is denied. The Court finds that a settlement of this case is not practicable absent the agreement of the Union of India to accept and abide by the terms of a settlement. The Union of India, through its counsel, has indicated no settlement will be made at this time.
5. The Opinion and Order is conditional only. It shall become final and appealable on the date Union Carbide's response to the conditions is received, on or by June 12, 1986.

SO ORDERED.
