

CONTENTS

Preface

Chapter I	Concepts, Constraints, Policies, Principles, Perspectives, Methods and Prospects	1-6
Chapter II	One Step Forward, Two Steps Backward : Post-Constitutional History of Uniform Family Laws	7-26
Chapter III	Public Response to Uniform Civil Code	27-34
Chapter IV	Academics and the Uniform Civil Code	35-46
Chapter V	The Role of the Government, the Politicians, the Press and the Minority Organisations	47-51
Chapter VI	Why do We Need a Uniform Civil Code?	52-66
Chapter VII	Uniform Civil Code without Tears	67-77
	Bibliography	78-80
	Appendices	80-162
	(i) Letter to Respondents and Interviews	80-117
	(ii) Extracts from Constituent Assembly Debates	117-133
	(iii) Extracts from the Muslim Personal Law (Shariat) Application Act, 1937	133-135
	(iv) Extract from Regulations for the Administration of the Department of Irregulars, Gwalior Government, Gwalior	135-136
	(v) Extracts from the Fourth Annual Report of Minorities Commission 1-1-1981 - 31-3-1982	137-145
	(vi) Adoption in India : A Study of Attitudes	145-158
	(vii) Uniform Civil Code : Don't We Have It Already?	158-162
	Index	163-166

